

Congressional Black Caucus Braintrust

Environmental Justice: Strengthening the Bridge Between Economic Development and Sustainable Communities

Purpose: To identify environmental issues and to recommend strategies that will assist policy makers in the development of a forward-thinking, comprehensive environmental policy that recognizes and fosters the unique relationship between environmental protection, human health, environmental justice and economic development.

Date: September 17, 1999

Time: 9:00 - 5:00 P.M.

Location: Capitol Hill, 2359 Rayburn House Office Building

Session I 9:00 - 10:30

The presentation of the proceedings from the Environmental Justice/
Economic Development Conference held in Hilton Head, South
Carolina on June 9-12, 1999.

Session II 10:45 - 12:30

Congressional Roundtable: Environmental Justice and Economic Development

Session II will provide the audience with a congressional perspective on the above referenced subject matter.

Session III 1:30 - 4:30

Roundtable Discussion

Session III is a continuation of Session II that allows for broader participation. Following the presentations from Congress members, the floor will be open for comments and recommendations from the audience.

Please mark your calendar and plan to attend!