

PLAN TO ATTEND THIS LISTENING SESSION OF THE NATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY COMMISSION

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- CONCERNED CITIZENS
- GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS
- BUSINESS REPRESENTATIVES
- LABOR ORGANIZATIONS
- FAITH-BASED COMMUNITIES
- HEALTH CARE ORGANIZATIONS
- COMMUNITY-BASED ORGANIZATIONS
- ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE COMMUNITIES
- ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE REPRESENTATIVES
- ACADEMICS AND RESEARCHERS

Open to the
Public in 2
Locations!

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS
- FEDERAL, STATE & LOCAL OFFICIALS
- AUDIENCE PARTICIPATION

The purpose of this Listening Session is to gain input from stakeholders that will assist policy makers in the development of forward-thinking, comprehensive environmental health policy that recognizes and fosters the unique relationship between environmental protection, human health, environmental justice and economic development.

Congresswoman Donna Christensen (VI)
Congressman James E. Clyburn (SC)
Congressional Black Caucus

WHEN: MONDAY, AUGUST 26, 2002, 9 A.M. ~ 5 P.M.

WHERE: UNIVERSITY OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS ~ TELECAST
ST. CROIX CAMPUS IN EVANS CENTER ROOM 401 AND
ST. THOMAS CAMPUS IN BUSINESS BUILDING ROOM 110

BRING: WRITTEN REMARKS THAT INCLUDE ISSUES AND RECOMMENDATIONS FOR POLICY DEVELOPMENT.
THOSE WISHING TO ADDRESS THE COMMISSION WILL BE ASKED TO LIMIT THEIR REMARKS TO 3 MINUTES.

COST: FREE REGISTRATION AT THE DOOR!

INFO: RAGAN DUBOSE, AT LUSKR@MUSC.EDU OR 843.792.5530